Deliverable 2

The students will list and provide a brief description of the resources that are being used to complete the project. Also, the student will provide a brief explanation of the technologies that he is learning in order to complete the project.

- I would use the table of content for this project and i am using Debian (64) for this project. I will be explaining how prepare the vm, to install the vm, and to install the actual open media vault.